Army Search Team Plunges Deep Into China to Seek Fliers Held As Slaves

CHENGTU, China, Sept. 26 (AP)—A U. S. army search team plunged deeper into China's wild and mountainous far west today seeking long-lost American airmen feared captives of the fierce slaveholding Lolos.

On the second day of their mission into the land of cloud-capped mountains, half-savage, Mongolian-featured warriors, and pandas, the soldiers were believed to be from five to 11 days' march from their goal.

That goal is the valley of the Chinkiang, which carves its course from headwaters in the world's highest mountains in Tibet.

Missionaries have reported at least eight enslaved whites were seen grinding corn or tending flocks in that region, where few white men save the missionaries have ever ventured.

Lieut.-Col. Herbert W. Wurtzler and his detachment expected to act up headquarters at a remote Catholic mission and try to learn there if the white captives are U. S. airmen downed two and more years ago on the perilous flight "over the hump," from India to China.

His party flew down to Sichang, about 300 miles southwest of Chengtu.

Wurtzler hoped to talk with those who saw the white men. Then he will try to locate the captives through friendly Lolo chieftains.

Dr. David Crockett Graham of West China university, who entered the Lolo country 20 years ago, said here that the Lolos probably would demand blankets and salt for ransom because their economy was based on the practice of slavery.

Wurtzler was accompanied by a French priest, who knows the fringes of Lololand. So primitive are communications that no developments were expected to be reported here inside of two weeks.

Reports reaching here said that an inter-tribal war was in progress somewhere ahead of Wurtzler's party, and this might further delay negotiations for the release of any airmen found.

Truman Not To Ask Meat De-Controls

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—President Truman declared unequivocally today he will not seek a removal of price controls on ment.

The President told a news conference there should be an improvement in meat supplies in the near future with a run of grass-fed cattle through the markets.

Mr. Truman declared that "dire predictions of a meat famine are without basis."

He read a statement to reporters in which he said that any increase in prices or an abandonment of controls on meat would in the long run "add to our difficulties."

Three Power Chiefs Hit at Federal Plan

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 26 (AP)—In a joint statement released here, the heads of power companies in three states said "there has been no shortage of electric power" in the areas they serve.

The statement said it was an answer to "the interior department's proposal that the Bonneville power administration market federally-generated electricity in southern Idaho."

Issued by C. J. Strike of Boise, president of the Idaho Power company; George M. Gadsby of Salt Lake City, president of the Utah Power and Light company, and Frank W. Bird of Butte, president of the Montana Power company, the statement said:

No Shortage

"There has been no shortage of electric power, even for peak wartime requirements, in the areas served by the Idaho, Utah and Montana Power companies and these privately-operated, taxpaying concerns are prepared to meet future electrical needs for their systems."

The statement said during the war years, the three firms "paid over $42,000,000 in taxes," and added:

"Government generated power pays no taxes."

In Spokane last night Bonneville Administrator Paul J. Raver said the extension of this agency power into southwestern Idaho would mean development of new industry "beyond anything dreamed of."

In answer to this, the power companies' statement declared:

They're Ready

"These business-managed taxpaying companies have been supplying electricity for the operation of phosphate plants in the area, are now supplying them with electricity, and stand ready to do so in the future by expanding their facilities to meet the increased demand."

The statement added:

"During the four years the average energy input to the lines of the three interconnected companies' systems was about 450,000 kilowatts of electricity—a tremendous contribution to the war effort. Large blocks of this power were transmitted to the northwest, supplementing that area's power supply."

"During much of this time, J. A. Krug, now secretary of the interior, was administrator of the office of war utilities and he announced that production of electric power had met all war demands and had never been too little or too late."

Oil Drilling to Start Soon in Strevell Area

BURLEY, Sept. 26—A deep test well will be drilled at Strevell in a hunt for oil in Magic Valley, it was announced here Wednesday night by W. E. St. Clair, general manager of the Cassia Oil Development company, Inc.

"The derrick and equipment have arrived at Strevell and a crew of oil men will commence rigging up for a deep test on the company's large acreage on the Declo-Strevell anticline at once," said St. Clair.

Oil men from the fields at Rangley, Colo., are of the opinion that the location has been well chosen and they predict discovery of a major oil field in Magic Valley, said St. Clair.

Major oil company scouts are active in the Cassia county field, said St. Clair, adding "it will be good news for Cassia county and for Idaho if oil is found here."

Strevell is in Cassia county just north of the Utah state line, 60 miles southeast of here.

"According to geologists' reports, they expect to tap oil sand at 4,500 feet," said St. Clair.

Arriving Saturday, Sept. 28, will be J. O. Leland, who notified St. Clair the heavy duty steel derrick, 122 feet high and with a 24-foot base, has been shipped from the oil fields at Bakersfield, Calif., to Strevell.

The derrick, with a capacity load of 450,000 pounds, is capable of drilling to any depth required for tests on the Declo-Strevell anticline, Leland advised St. Clair.

Leland will make arrangements for rig builders to erect the derrick immediately, said St. Clair. Leland carries plans and specifications for its erection and construction of an all-cement foundation.

Wool Material Asked To Aid Polio Victims

An appeal for donations of blankets and garments containing over 60 per cent wool to help in treating Twin Falls county polio cases was issued Thursday afternoon as Mrs. Norma Bailey Hadlock, sister of one of the stricken polio victims, arrived in Twin Falls Thursday morning to help nurse her.

Mrs. Hadlock flew from Los Angeles to Salt Lake city and Charles Reeder, local airport manager, flew her from the Utah Capital to Twin Falls Thursday morning.

An emergency call was sent by the American Red Cross to San Francisco this morning for more nurses to be sent here but no further word had been received by 2 p. m.

Helen Gee, former Twin Falls nurse who has been attending infantile paralysis patients in San Francisco, was wired directly by

Science Finds Treatment to Combat Polio

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 (AP)—An authority on infantile paralysis said today that medical science still could not prevent the occurrence of a single case of the disease but could enable 75 per cent of its victims to recover without any handicap.

Roland H. Berg, staff member of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said flies or other insects had not been established as carriers, that the tiny polio virus had not been completely identified, that science has not unlocked the mystery of the nerve cell that acts as host to the virus and that better diagnosis methods are needed.

Cla't Prevent It

Despite some 40 years of research efforts, he said in an article in Hygeia, health magazine of the American Medical association, "it is still impossible to prevent the occurrence of an epidemic or even one single case of infantile paralysis." He added:

"The agent that may carry the polio virus and transmit it to human beings, has not yet been found. No tangible evidence has been uncovered to incriminate flies, mosquitoes or animal agents. On occasion scientists have discovered that flies trapped in epidemic areas carry the virus of polio but they have not been able to link a polio-laden fly with an actual case of human polio. . . At the present time scientists believe that the disease is more often passed by intimate person to person contact."

Meeting Success

He said scientists at Stanford university under the direction of Dr. Hubert S. Loring recently had been about 80 per cent successful in purifying the polio virus and that they believe it is probably protein in character and one of the smallest organisms ever studied.

He said great strides had been made in treatment, including therapy to keep muscles in healthy condition during the "temporary damage" the spinal cord and brain areas suffer at the onset of the disease.

With this treatment, he said, "physicians report that three out of every four cases of infantile paralysis can recover without any handicap."

Six-Year High

BOISE, Sept. 26 (AP)—The highest number of polio cases since 1940—25 this year—have been reported in Idaho, the state bureau of vital statistics said today.

Last week five new cases were added, two in Ada county, two in Twin Falls county and one at Idaho Falls.

The total for all of 1945 was 24 while in 1940 66 cases were reported.

the South Central Idaho health unit, and it is "fairly sure" that she will come, Mrs. R. H. Smith, health unit nurse, said.

Mrs. Hadlock is a sister of Mrs. Zelma Lamb, who was stricken with the disease Wednesday morning and is having "hot pack" treatments applied. Mrs. Hadlock has been working with polio cases in Pasadena.

Virginia Carlton, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carlton, who was taken with polio in an ambulance several weeks ago, this week was removed from the iron lung in which she has been living since Sept. 1. Her mother reported Thursday that she is "improving slightly," although she is still in bad condition.

The other Twin Falls woman who contracted the disease this week is Mrs. John Hazlett, who lives south of the city. Both victims are mothers of two small children.

The blankets and woolen garments, which have to be cut up for hot packs, can be brought to the health unit or the Red Cross office.

Irked Drummer Invents Way to Oust Band Boss

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 (U.P.) — Drummer Al Carter got fed up with the orchestra leader today.

He announced his invention of a mechanical baton which he hopes will make the orchestra leader as unnecessary as a fiddle player in a drum and bugle corps.

Carter got busy on his invention after he lost his job in Salt Lake City. An orchestra leader fired him and replaced him with a mechanical drum beater.

Left Wingers to Revive New Deal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (U.P.) — A group of left wing leaders including a couple of former Roosevelt cabinet members, Harold Ickes and Henry Morgenthau, announced plans today to patch together the pieces of the late President's new deal political organization.

The movement is aimed at the November elections but fairly could be regarded as a long-range anti-administration development aimed at 1948. Sponsors of the movement hope to rally millions of voters around a statement of objectives as millions of years rallied around Franklin D. Roosevelt's dynamic personality.

Three organizations are sponsoring a week-end conference in Chicago to organize the independent and left wing vote. The sponsoring organizations are Harold L. Ickes' independent committee of the arts, sciences and professions, the CIO political action committee and the national citizens PAC.

Hotel Strike Ends

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26 (AP)—The strike of 8,000 AFL workers that has halted food and bar service in scores of leading hotels and restaurants for the last week was at end today, with members of the unions involved all back on their jobs.

Sales Tax, Other Funds From State Urged for School Usage

By ROB LEERIGHT

Increased revenue from the state government to finance adequately and to correct "glaring inefficiencies in our state education program" was demanded by Dr. John M. Booth, executive secretary of the Idaho Education association, before 657 members of the South Central Idaho Education association, whose two-day convention opened today.

Dr. Booth suggested reinstating a sales tax, the proceeds of which would go to the state education fund; the modification of the tax system to permit increased revenue from sources other than the real property tax; requiring compulsory consolidation of some school districts to provide greater equalization of the school system; and the raising of minimum tax levy of 12 mills for schools.

Donald M. Dafoe, Rupert, president of the South Central Idaho Educational association, said that by noon 657 teachers from Magic Valley had registered at the convention and more are expected.

BOOTH

DAFOE

Howard Andrews, president of the Idaho Education association, explained the organization of the state, district and local educational associations and urged greater action this year in presenting a "solid education front" on recommendations proposed in the state educational survey, which is expected to be published in October.

Harold F. Willmorth, a former Gooding high school teacher and Shoshone superintendent, and now director of the teachers' retirement system, outlined that program and likened it to "an insurance annuity."

"Idaho is failing to balance her tax program by neglecting the sales tax," Dr. Booth charged. He pointed out that $5,000,000 annually could be raised by a sales tax in this state. He declared that the California and Washington education systems are supported largely by the sales tax.

A sales tax was operated in Idaho in the early 1930s for less than a year, before it was killed by a referendum.

Dr. Booth rapped at the fluctuation of assessments in Idaho and pointed out that although the population of the state had increased 65 per cent since 1913, the real property evaluation had increased only $3,000,000 and until last year, had been valued at even less than the 1913 level.

"More education funds must come from the state government," he asserted. "As long as the majority of the money received for the education system of the state is received from local districts it is not possible for small districts to provide adequate education."

State Lagging

Dr. Booth pointed out that local districts supply 68 per cent of the school revenue today and that the federal government supplies nearly as much as the state. He declared

FLASH LIFE

STROLL

NEW YORK, Sept. 26—The Bronx zoo's tapir decided yesterday that after three years of confinement it was time he was on the outside looking in.

Finding the two doors leading from his cage unlocked, the 500-pound animal pushed them open with his long nose and for a half hour ambled in the sunlight, getting acquainted with the Bronx.

Keepers put an abrupt end to his stroll, however, using lasso to corral him.

BOTTLES

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 26—Someone pitched a beer bottle from a hotel window, and bystander Phillip J. Coughlan, 60, walked into the street to pick up the fragments and prevent damage to automobile tires.

As he was bending over, a second bottle glanced off his head, sending him to a hospital for seven stitches to close the laceration.

Police arrested two men on the 15th floor of the hotel. They said they were here for a soft drink convention.

CRACKUP

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 26 — When City Engineer Frank Akers drained the city's reservoir, a displaced duck took off. Few some seven blocks and crashed into the side of Aker's home.

Thousands Starving On Isle of Madoera

BATAVIA, Java, Sept. 26 (AP)—Tens of thousands are starving on the island of Madoera, whose 2,500,000 people have been cut off from Java for more than a year, a prominent Madoerese who reached Batavia reported today.

Dutch authorities, confirming the report, said more than 5,000 Madoerese crossed the shark-infested three-mile channel to Soerabaja, Java, in the past three months by swimming or using rafts.

Sanborn Hits Opponent for Profit Scheme

BOISE, Sept. 26 (U.P.)—Dan J. Cexanagh, Democratic state chairman, said today he was "amused at the feeble attempt of John Sanborn to test the formation of a corporation—his vaunted free enterprise—into sort of a nefarious plot by Pete Leguineche, our Democratic candidate for second district congressman. This attempt . . . betrays the workings of his own mind."

By United Press

John Sanborn, Hagerman, Republican candidate for second district congressman, dominated the political scene in Idaho today with a charge that his Democrat opponent, Pete Leguineche, "evidently plans to use his political influence . . . to bring Bonneville power into Idaho for the benefit of a private corporation with which he is associated."

Sanborn said Leguineche was one of three incorporators of Columbia Valley Phosphates, Inc., which listed as its purpose the development of fertilizer from the natural phosphate beds of eastern Idaho.

Sanborn said the press recently reported that "Leguineche conferred in Washington with interior department officials on the proposal to bring Bonneville power from the Columbia river plants to eastern Idaho to process phosphate."

He added that C. Girard Davidson, assistant secretary of the interior, met Tuesday with Sen. Glen H. Taylor and Leguineche on the proposal to extend the Bonneville lines and that Davidson and his department "will seek funds from congress to get that power into eastern Idaho."

"Furthermore," Sanborn said, "Davidson confirmed that the Bonneville power will be used for development of the phosphate beds.

"So here we have a Democrat senator, and a Democrat candidate for congress using his political influence to aid the private fortunes of one of them."

Bolyard Forecast As Binghamton Manager; Arnold, Heslet, Carlson Slated to Go Along

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 26 (AP)—Hottest prediction of the post Pioneer league season is that Earl Bolyard, who managed the Twin Falls Cowboys to second place this year, will wind up succeeding Lefty Gomez as manager of the Binghamton club of the Eastern league.

In any case, Cowboy twirler Jim Arnold has a ticket to the New York state outfit with word waiting Harry Heslet, Pioneer home run king, and Vance Carlson, another Cowboy chucker.

Managers out in the postseason shakeups include Eddie Leishman of the Idaho Falls Russets and Jim Keesey of the Ogden Reds, who resigned.

The San Francisco Seals will get most of the topnotch players from the Salt Lake City Bees pennant winning aggregation. Three pitchers are slated for the trip west along with catcher Bill Leonard, Chuck Henson, first sacker, and Joe Brovia. The pitchers are Lanny Kasparovich, Bob Chesnes and Larry Powell.

Bill Azevedo, who with Kasparovich came from Hawaii, was released outright.

Most of the Pocatello Cards leaving the league are heading southward, the Columbus Ga., club of the Sally league getting Danny Hill, lefthanded twirler. Bud Rotzell and Zeb Wicker will play with Lynchburg of the Piedmont league.

Decatur of the Three-Eye league garnered Bill Jacobsen, Joe Stacey and Jim Glimpse, all of the Cards, while Joe Borich was given his release. Hard-hitting Solly Hemus is headed for Houston of the Texas league.

Columbia, S. C., of the Sally league, bought the contracts of five Ogden men, Fletcher Robbe, Jim Davidson, Frank Pawlick, Bob Montag and Bernie Westercamp.

Willis Greer, Cowboys, will go to Beaumont of the Texas league, and Frank Prowse, also a Twin Falls Wrangler, goes to San Jose, Calif.

Jack Radtke of the Twin Falls club has been offered a managerial post with the New York Yankees system. The post could be at Twin Falls or elsewhere.

Strikers Put Picketers at Film Studios

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 26 (U.P.) — A long-standing jurisdictional dispute erupted today into the motion picture industry's third flare-up in a year as the conference of studio unions strung picket lines around seven major studios.

The largest demonstrations occurred at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Warner Bros., scene of bloody strike riots last year.

Culver City police said they understood nearly 2,000 were picketing MGM, and Warner reported approximately 300.

Pickets also were on duty at RKO, Columbia, 20th Century-Fox, Universal and Paramount studios. Lines at those lots ranged from a dozen to 100 men. At most studios, nonstrikers were reported passing through the lines without trouble.

Culver City police reported one "incident" on the MGM picket line when a non-striker was "swung at" by a picket.

The conference of studio unions called all its 10,000 members off their jobs and placed them on the picket lines after movie producers had discharged 1,500 AFL carpenters and painters affiliated with the conference.

The carpenters and painters had refused to work on sets built by members of the rival AFL International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employes. The CSU charged that their dismissal constituted a "lockout."

INJUNCTION DISSOLVED

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 26 (AP) — The Allegheny county common pleas court today dissolved its stern anti-strike injunction—crux of the city's three-day-old power strike — and dropped contempt charges against 10 union leaders who had defied the injunction.

Dissolution of the injunction was requested by the city in an attempt to settle the industry-stifling walkout.

Speaker Asks Sales Tax for School Needs

that the state government provides "less than 10 per cent of the total school revenue."

"This state can afford all and more than we ask for an education program," Dr. Booth asserted.

He asked the citizens of Idaho to compare the conditions of the numerous night clubs being erected in the state with the schools "just across the section line." Dr. Booth pointed out that the night clubs will have modern fluorescent lighting, shiny chrome furniture and murals on the walls.

Significant Comparison

"The nearby school will have inadequate lighting by which school children are ruining their eyesight, rickety desks that were occupied by their grandparents and pre-World war I kalsomine on the walls," he said.

Dr. Booth said that 80 per cent of the school tax is paid by real property taxes and that "it is unfair to tax real property that high when it amounts to only 50 per cent of the total wealth of the state."

He charged that the "personal property tax in Idaho has collapsed" and said that in the last year only $74,000 in private automobiles were valued on the personal property tax rolls.

"I could drive a few blocks in Twin Falls and wreck that many cars," he declared.

Shouldn't Be Ignored

Dr. Booth admitted that the personal property tax "is hard to administer but that is no reason why it should be virtually ignored."

He asserted that there are 16 school districts in Idaho with less than $10,000 evaluation and with the 12-mill levy maximum these are able to raise only $120 a year.

He said there are more than 200 school districts in the state that can raise only $1,400 by the legal tax levy, "so it is impossible to ask a minimum teacher salary of $1,500 until the entire tax structure is changed."

Short of Goal

Dr. Booth declared that the Idaho school equalization law is excellent "as far as it goes," but charged that it fell short of its goal by equalizing schools only up to $1,215 a classroom unit. He explained that the average cost of administrating a classroom unit is $2,200 to $3,000 and that the equalization law covers "less than half that average cost."

Explaining the wide variance of tax levies in the state for education purposes and the relative wealth of different school districts, he said that a compulsory consolidation law would be the only solution to effecting better school administration.

City Responds

Mrs. Rose M. North, vice-president of the south central Idaho association, reported that "so many Twin Falls residents opened their homes to the visiting teachers that we have more rooms than we need."

Andrews declared that the next legislature will have more accurate information on educational matters than any preceding legislature as a result of the survey now being conducted. He urged teachers to help acquaint legislators, civic leaders, and representatives of veterans organizations and other groups with the provisions of the survey.

O. C. Sullivan, state superintendent of public instruction, and Alton B. Jones, Republican candidate for that office, both spoke briefly before the meeting.

Friday Session

Tomorrow's session will be devoted to a business meeting, the election of officers, choosing of the convention city for next year and sectional meetings. Dafoe said.

Dr. Robert Griffin, Reader's Digest reading analyst, will be the principal speaker at the morning session and will conduct a sectional meeting for elementary teachers in the afternoon.

Miss R. J. Hawes, Twin Falls, will report on the Parent-Teachers association and committee reports will be delivered by Leigh Ingersoll, Gooding, nomination; LeRoy Hughes, Shoshone, resolutions; and S. R. Bjorkman, Burley, constitutional revisions.

Elect Officers

Balloting for the new convention officers will be held at 11:45 a.m. Mrs. North will succeed to the presidency at the conclusion of the convention and a new vice-president will be named.

A complimentary dinner for local unit presidents, district presidents and county superintendents will be held at 6:30 p.m. today at the Park hotel, according to Kenneth E. Kail, chairman of the arrangements.

At a pre-convention meeting Wednesday evening, Sullivan declared that the "future program of the state superintendent's office will be to equalize educational opportunities for all boys and girls in Idaho."

Better Training

James V. Fowler, state director of guidance, expressed the need for better trained teachers and spoke on juvenile delinquency. E. M. Wilson, state agent of the federal hot lunch program, explained that program, and Charles T. Whittaker, president of the State Trustees association urged Idaho citizens to become familiar with the state survey report when it is published late in October.

Loretta Schuler, registered nurse with the state department of public health, and Willmorth explained their programs.

ONE OF THE BEST MURDER MYSTERIES OF THE YEAR

Action Nears In Expanding Crisis on Meat

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, who in a radio speech from Albuquerque Tuesday night said he considered present price ceilings high enough to give farmers a fair return on their meat, promised in a statement last night that he will act promptly on any formal petition to remove controls.

"But," he added, "if one of the requirements for decontrol is a showing that the commodity is not in short supply, such a finding might be difficult to justify, as the present outcry for more meat would indicate."

Being Arranged

Under the price control law, only OPA advisory committees may petition for decontrol—a step now being arranged by Chairman Roscoe I. Haynie of the beef industry committee.

Taking note of McCormack's call for a 60-day suspension of ceilings, Haynie told a reporter such action "would not bring orderly marketing or production."

"The only solution to the present meat shortages," he added, "is complete and permanent decontrol."

SANTA FE, N. M., Sept. 26 (AP)—Paul Porter, national director of OPA, said today that an order is being prepared in Washington to make more meat available to hospitals and similar institutions throughout the country.

Porter, here to attend a regional conference of OPA officials, said packers would be directed to set aside the same amount of meat for hospitals that they delivered during the base period in 1944.

He declined to elaborate on the plan, saying details would be announced in Washington.

Porter told a press conference that he opposed a 60-day suspension on meat and other scarce foods, saying he believed such a suspension would result "in just what we've been going through."

Martha Meade
Famous Western Food Authority

Sift flour before measuring. Use level measurements for all ingredients.

Have egg whites at room temperature (about 70°). Preheat oven to 425°, a hot oven.

Sift together 4 times—
- ⅞ cup sifted Sperry Drifted Snow "Home-Perfected" Enriched Flour (¾ cup plus 2 tablespoons)
- ½ cup sifted granulated sugar

Then in a very large bowl, beat with a flat whip until frothy—
- 1½ cups egg whites (10-11 large egg whites)

Add—
- 1 teaspoon cream of tartar
- ½ teaspoon salt

Continue beating until whites are glossy, fine grained, and draw up in a stiff point as whip is pulled out (they should not look dry). Using a gentle folding and cutting motion with the whip, add, a little at a time forming a meringue—
- ½ cup sifted granulated sugar

Fold in—
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Then shake small amounts of the previously sifted flour-sugar mixture from the sifter onto the meringue, carefully and gently folding it in between each addition, until all of mixture is used. Carefully pile batter in a dry, ungreased 10-inch tube pan and cover the cake with an inverted shallow 10-inch round layer cake pan (covering pan should be shallow enough so that a small air space is left between the tops of the two pans). Place cake in a hot oven, 425°. After 15 minutes, carefully remove pan used as a covering. Caution: do not remove cake from oven while doing this. Continue baking cake another 15 minutes (30 minutes total baking time). Test for doneness,* then remove cake from oven and invert pan. Let stand until thoroughly cold—approximately one hour. Remove from pan and frost, if desired. 12 servings.

*Angel Food Cakes are ready to remove from the oven when the surface of the cake looks dry and springs back when lightly touched with the fingers, and the edge of the cake around the center tube has started to pull away from the metal.

TO REMOVE ANGEL FOOD CAKE from the pan, carefully loosen the sides of the cake all around with an up and down motion of a spatula or a straight bladed knife. Loosen around center tube in the same way. Then shake inverted pan sharply. Hold palm and fingers of one hand beneath cake to catch it as it falls from the pan.

Trial Oct. 7th For Burglary

Charged with participation in the Sept. 3 burglary of the Owl Cigar store, 131 Shoshone street south, Frank Van Eaton Thursday entered a plea of not guilty in district court. Judge James W. Porter set his trial for 10 a. m. Oct. 7.

Involved in the theft were three cartons of tobacco, 100 cartons of cigarettes, six gallons of fruit juice and a can of mince meat. The stolen items were recovered.

Cleo Jasper, charged with conspiracy to commit burglary, was released on his own recognizance and his trial was postponed until January, 1947, during the next court term.

The hearing of Norman Demer, Murtaugh, charged with manslaughter, was continued until 10 a. m. Monday morning.

Manslaughter charges were filed following a truck-train collision on Aug. 23, in which Madolynne Christensen, 15, Murtaugh, was buried to her death from the back of the truck driven by Demer. Demer had pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Frederick S. Pratt, Twin Falls, pleaded guilty Wednesday to an indictable misdemeanor charge of non-support of a minor child, 7, and was ordered to pay the sum of $125 which was delinquent and to make regular monthly payments of $25.

Long Beach Rites For Miss Warner

Irene Warner, 44, drowned at Long Beach, Calif., according to information received here. The body was found on the beach on Monday. The late Miss Warner was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Warner, Twin Falls, and was a school teacher at Huntington Park, Calif.

Mrs. Alice Ballou, Long Beach, an aunt, identified the body. She told police her niece had been despondent because of ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bolton, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Warner, arrived Wednesday afternoon to remain with the parents until after the funeral and burial which will be conducted in Long Beach.

Other survivors include a sister, Harriet Warner, Corvallis, Ore., and a brother, Tom Warner, San Francisco, who are both en route to Long Beach.

Idaho's Teaching Standards Low, IEA Officer Says

Idaho has the lowest standards of teacher preparation of any state in the west and one of the lowest in the nation, Dr. John M. Booth, executive secretary of the Idaho Education association, told the Kiwanis club Thursday noon luncheon.

He urged consolidation of school districts in Idaho and a greater share of the revenue for the education program to be derived from the state government instead of local school districts.

Jim Mahoney, manager of the western division public relations department of Mutual Broadcasting system, explained the operation of a radio network and declared that "television is still ten years away."

He explained how local stations buy time from the networks and how nationwide programs are arranged through advertising agencies by the network.

"In Idaho a veterinarian gets more education and training to treat your dog than a teacher does to educate your children," Dr. Booth asserted.

Guests were Don Dafoe, Rupert; John Brockton, Clayton, Mo.; and Jack Thomas, the Rev. Donald B. Blackstone, and Leonard Jacob.

Salvation Army Fund Drive Now At $10,000 Total

With reports still pending from about half of the canvassing teams, the Salvation Army's building fund campaign has now reached $10,000, according to Maj. Clara Nielsen, officer of the local unit.

Headed by H. G. Lauterbach, general chairman, the campaign, which has a $25,000 objective, started Sept. 16 and was to have lasted a week. Because of difficulty of some of the division canvassers in contacting business and other interests, the drive may be continued into next week to permit complete coverage.

Any individuals or businesses which may have been missed in the drive are urged by officials to send in their contributions direct to the Salvation Army in Twin Falls.

Purpose of the campaign is to raise funds for a general headquarters which will include a day nursery.

THE PEOPLE HAVE BEEN WARNED

Communism has become a much more serious problem in this country than most people realize. In fact there was almost a major eruption of communistic radicalism over the Wallace issue.

Thousands of those in sympathy with communism hissed and booed America's determination to follow the policy which Secretary of State Byrnes has so clearly defined in peace negotiations with Russia. It is easy to understand why they prefer appeasement of Russia as proposed by Wallace, rather than the "firm" policy upon which Secretary Byrnes and the American government are agreed.

Many Americans refuse to become alarmed over the spread of communism in the United States. A good many of them are just naturally complacent. Others do not believe communism has made enough headway to cause any concern. And still others contend that most of the talk about communism in this country is nothing more than political propaganda.

But the FBI knows different. So do our representatives in congress who have seen ample evidence of communism's rapid growth in this country. In fact there are dozens of communistic organizations with thousands of members. No longer do they attempt to conceal their identity. Instead they work openly and defiantly in their efforts to undermine our democracy.

The Times-News and nearly all the other daily newspapers in the United States have warned the people repeatedly that this spread of communism is not only real, but dangerous. But the people of this vicinity are pretty much like those throughout the country. It's going to take a few more flare-ups like the Wallace episode to make them realize there is something rotten in this country—that a sinister influence is behind it all.

The Scripps-Howard newspapers have made it clear to their millions of readers in the United States that the "communist fifth column" is a "national menace."

"America has no quarrel with Russian communists," this great newspaper chain warns its readers. "If Russia wants communism, that is none of our business. But we warn against international communists within our own country—men who call themselves Americans, but take their orders from Moscow. Men who serve foreign masters—yet spread their poison in our labor unions, political parties, schools, even our homes.

"Think as you read these facts. An informed and unified public opinion is the ONLY force strong enough to protect America against these peddlers of subversive foreign ideals, these saboteurs of American democracy. And public opinion is YOU—multiplied by millions."

Idaho, it would seem, has a particularly good reason for becoming alarmed about this blight that is spreading over the nation.

When a crowd of 10,000 "hot-heads" in New York boos men like Secretary of State Byrnes, and then joins in cheering for Stalin, Wallace, and U. S. Senator Glen Taylor, we should realize that we are playing right into the communists' slimy hands.

It's almost impossible to believe that the people of Idaho would be gullible enough to accept some foreign ideology in preference to the type of citizenship this country affords them.

But be that as it may, they never can say they were not warned.

HUMAN GESTURE

Big corporations are traditionally pictured as soulless. But the action of the A. & P. chain store management in New York during the trucking strike seems at odds with this time-honored portrait.

When, as a result of the strike, the chain's 500 New York stores had to close because of lack of supplies, the 8,000 employes were informed that they would be paid in full for the duration of the shutdown, since they were not to blame for the closing and shouldn't be penalized.

Certainly this was no more than just. But it seems a rather kindly and human gesture, too. Incidentally, the gesture cost the company something like $400,000 a week—which isn't hay, even for a rich corporation.

EXTERMINATORS' CHOICE

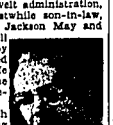

Just when it seemed the weapon to be employed—when and if—in the extermination of humanity would certainly be the atomic bomb, an American scientist revealed at a Schenectady forum that it isn't necessarily so. The United States developed during the war a super-poison so deadly that one ounce of it could kill every person in the United States and Canada, said Dr. Gerald Wendt, editorial director of Science Illustrated.

All things considered, perhaps we'd better instruct Secretary Byrnes and his associates to go on about their peace-making business with, if possible, even a little more earnestness.

A real lazy man is one who buys a front seat for a fan dance just to get the breeze.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

INVESTIGATED — Another wartime transaction that profited friends of the Roosevelt administration, including Curtis Dahl, FDR's erstwhile son-in-law, the law partner of Rep. Andrew Jackson May and a former legal associate of Cordell Hull, will soon be investigated by the special house committee headed by Rep. Roger C. Slaughter. He is the MC who was purged in the recent Missouri primary at the behest of President Truman.

Ray Tucker

Key figures in the deal, which hinged on a project for pipelining natural gas from southwestern fields to Nashville, Tenn., report that Congressman May lobbied more actively with the federal power commission and the war production board on this venture than he did in the case of the Garson brothers' munitions contracts.

• • •

FAVORS—Mr. Dahl flourished a letter from President Roosevelt in which his one-time father-in-law addressed him as "Dear Curt," and congratulated him on his attempt to contribute to military victory by increasing the supply of essential natural gas. This document opened many doors and won many favors.

When the original promoters sold out to a Chicago corporation, they got a fine profit on a minimum of cash investment. It is understood that Anna Roosevelt's former spouse dragged down about $150,000, although he had to threaten a suit to obtain full payment.

New stock given to Wade Thompson of Tennessee, Mr. Hull's former law partner, is estimated to be worth $302,000 at present values. Mr. May's associate, John E. Buckingham, was issued securities which would sell for $311,325 at the moment.

• • •

PRIORITIES—The pipeline project became a top drawer "must" as soon as FDR decided in early 1941 to transform the United States into an "arsenal of democracy." The natural gas from the Huguenot fields (Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas) was needed to reinforce comparatively inactive wells in the vast manufacturing area of Tennessee, Alabama and other nearby states.

The Hope Natural Gas company of Louisiana, a going concern as a subsidiary of Standard Oil of New Jersey, applied to the federal power commission for a license in early 1941. The FPC, which has always had more than its share of anti-trust new dealers, held hearings for more than a year, but never took affirmative action.

WPB's utilities division, which was then headed by Interior Secretary J. A. Krug, seemed to favor this application. But it could not grant priorities on materials to the Hope concern until FPC had issued a license.

• • •

REFUSED—It was then that the promoters arrived on the scene in the form of the Tennessee Gas and Transmission company. It was then only a paper corporation, having no gas, no markets, no customers and only sufficient funds for the usual promotional expenses. Original and directing sponsor at this period was the engineering firm of Brokaw, Dixon and McKee.

Mr. Dahl allowed the congratulatory letter from the President to be seen by FPC, WPB and army-navy officials. Congressman May badgered key figures in the two agencies, FPC and WPB, especially "Cap" Krug and his first assistant, Ed Falk. But these two men, despite doubts, refused to grant priorities until after FPC had acted.

• • •

UNUSUAL—The Tennessee Gas and Transmission company was given a provisional certificate of convenience by the federal power commission in July of 1943. Grant of a full license was withheld until they were able to assure the FPC that they could obtain the gas, customers and construction money.

Tennessee's application came before FPC for final action on Sept. 8, 1943. Hope had withdrawn because its lawyers and engineers apparently realized the futility of bucking the Dahl-May-Thompson combine, and entered no contest.

The little ultra-new dealish power commissioners strained themselves to show favors to the Tennessee group on that Sept. 8. Although it is customary for an examiner or a single member to hear such petitions, all three power czars were present on this day. Whereas they usually adjourn at 4 p. m., they sat until 8:30 p. m. that day, and issued the license from the bench—a most unusual procedure for any federal agency.

• • •

PROFIT—Financing the project became an easy matter after FPC's issuance of a license.

The reconstruction finance corporation advanced $45,000,000 and the Chicago corporation, an investment trust, put up $11,000,000. The remaining $15,000,000 was obtained through sale of stock and bank loans.

Thus aired and financed, Tennessee Gas and Transmission has done a good job. The original promoters sold out to the Chicago corporation and other interests, receiving as partial payment new stock which netted them approximately a $3,000,000 profit at its current value.

That's "nice going," so the Slaughter committee investigators think, for a political promotion organization that started from scratch.

VIEWS OF OTHERS

A NEW HIGH IN ABSURDITY

A southern congressman recently stated that the power consumers of the Pacific northwest are being overcharged millions of dollars a year for electric service. He based this remarkable statement on an alleged comparison of electric rates in that area with the rates charged by the TVA. He then urged that the government spend a few hundred million to establish a Columbia valley authority, patterned on the TVA model.

The day following, an official of a private utility in Oregon issued a statement showing that the congressman, to put it mildly, had his figures curiously confused. Rates in the Pacific northwest actually average a trifle lower than in the TVA region. And, on top of that, the private utilities in Oregon and Washington pay enormous sums in taxes, while the TVA pays practically nothing.

Regardless of these statistical debates, it's amazing that anyone should get in a sweat about the cost of electricity at this time. Since prewar days, the general cost of living has advanced in the neighborhood of 50 per cent—and some surveys show a considerably higher increase. By comparison the cost of electricity has actually gone down. That is true of no other commonly used commodity—and of extremely few services.

The plain truth is that, in these days of inflated prices, you could hardly find the electric bill in the average family budget. It's one of those minuscular items of expense, like garbage service and water, which amount to next to nothing. If power were absolutely free, the consumer wouldn't save enough to pay the average family's tobacco bill.

All this talk about power isn't honestly based on rates. That's just the obvious camouflage. It's based instead on the political desire to socialize the industry. It's part of the long-pull campaign against free enterprise and the American way of doing things. The recent blast by the congressman is just one more example of the ridiculous lengths to which some politicians will go.—Pocatello Tribune.

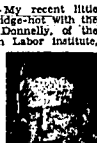

BOTH OR NEITHER

While declaring physical inability to journey to Washington to testify before the Mead investigating committee, Chairman May of Kentucky is asking for reelection as a representative in congress. It would imperil his health and perhaps his life to make a one-day appearance at the national capital and tell what he knows about certain mid-war transactions, but he is fit to go back to Washington the first of the year and spend a full biennium looking after the thousand duties of a congressman's office.

If May is able to run for reelection and to serve two full years in congress, he is able to appear before the Mead committee and tell what he knows. He ought to do both or neither.—Oklahoma City Oklahoman.

PEGLER

NEW YORK—My recent little bout of peas-porridge-hot with the Rev. Joseph P. Donnelly, of the Hartford Diocesan Labor institute, wherein I kept my private self and my demeanor stately even when he stuck his thumb in my eye, has elicited from the editor of the Monitor, the official organ of the archdiocese of San Francisco, an interesting collateral report. I guess I mean collateral, although I shouldn't go in for such high-sounding words when I mean a ringside comment.

Westbrook Pegler

Father Donnelly wrote in the American Ecclesiastical Review that he had not been "unhappy" to learn that the vast majority of a group of young Catholic priests disagreed with my opinion of the American union movement which is, really, that it is so much more bad than good as to be, in the total score, terrible. I replied that these junior clergy were "misinformed" and gave a few, but only a few, reasons why I believe it is so bad.

I am unable to give you the name of the editor of the Monitor because, unfortunately, the man who sent me the tear-sheet containing his comment has torn it off across the mast-head. He is the Rev. Hugh A. D---- Duffy, perhaps, or Donovan or Dolan?

He is an easy-going, temperate and fair, whereas Father Donnelly was up on his feet, cheering, because a group of young clergy, apparently under his own tutelage, agreed with one who began his article by expressing his "distaste for the gentleman," meaning me. What has his distaste for the gentleman to do with the facts of the case, anyway?

The editor of the Monitor reviews my criticisms and offers some thoughts of his own.

Exercising their right to form unions for their own betterment, he says, working men have been opposed by employers who sought to maintain a "free" labor market, in which the unorganized individual competes with every other worker for whatever job is available. Thus the man willing to work for the least sets the pay for the job.

"Unions," he wrote, "want employers to be in the market for labor rather than labor to be in the market for work."

Let me interrupt.

Employers have been in the market for workers and labor has been in the market for jobs, both, ever since V-J day, a new phase of the conflict. Neither the employers nor the workers wanted this condition but the union bosses imposed it.

"Workingmen who belong to unions favor the control that their unions acquire over job opportunities . . ."

Now, wait a minute, Father D . . .!

If you mean "some workingmen," all right. But if you mean all or most of them then why do unions demand the check-off, whose doughtiest and honestest advocate, John L. Lewis, admits that its principal purpose is to check apostasy?

Do you think the multitudes of workingmen "who belong to unions" only because they were forced to join or go hungry, favor those controls by unions over job opportunities?

• • •

Having studied union constitutions as much as any man in the U.S.A. and, I dare say, more than the junior clergy of the Hartford Diocesan Labor institute, I maintain that these controls constitute a tyranny that no self-respecting workingman would submit to willingly. They violate the citizen's rights more outrageously than employers would dare try today.

And I say this is the worst for the people of the country because so many political and spiritual leaders condone or even advocate it. One job-control is the power to "try" and suspend indefinitely any worker, and citizen, who violates the rule against "un-unionlike conduct." What is "un-unionlike conduct?" It is anything that a few union bosses don't like.

I say that when the national government and some of the state governments compel men and women to "belong to unions" and submit to the "control that their unions acquire over job opportunities," then the government must see that these unions revise their constitutions and conduct their affairs in compliance with the constitution of the U.S.A.

That means government supervision and control of unions, doesn't it? And that is Hitlerism and Stalinism, too. I don't think Father D . . . is for that but the only alternative is voluntary unionism and that means the open shop, which Father D. . . is against.

"Mr. Pegler," he says, "reminds us of the doctor . . . who keeps repeating the diagnosis without ever offering a satisfactory remedy except, possibly, the advice to remove the patient's head to relieve the headache."

"The fundamental weakness of unions," as he sees it, is the apathy of the workers who won't attend meetings and who vote in ignorance of the issues. But I say that is a fatal weakness. Such attendance and the constant study to understand all issues and the watchfulness against tricks is too much to ask of workingmen. Men are tired at night. Many, as Harry Hopkins is said to have said, are just too dumb to understand. Mother gets sore if pop keeps going down to the hall every night. What about a movie? What about the kids' homework? What about helping with the dishes, you lazy tramp?

If I remind Father D . . . of one joke, I can top him.

An old cockney, says: "We did 'ave a joke on Bert lahst night. 'Is 'ouse burned down and Bert came to the window and we yelled 'jump, Bert, and we'll catch you in the blanket.' And Bert, 'e jumped and we didn't 'ave no bloody blanket!"

POT SHOTS

LIVESTOCK EXPERT

Dear P. S.:

Most of our "cousins" on the other side of the Mississippi river have considerable trouble recognizing the primary differences between horses and cows, leave alone getting into the finer points of the livestock business. But one easterner is surely enjoying her laughs at the expense of R. A. Bean, Kimberly farmer.

Bean went to the livestock auction sale the other day to buy a steer. He bought and paid for the animal and brought him home.

Mrs. Robert Presnell, Portland, Me., who was visiting the Beans, adroitly pointed out that Mr. Bean did not buy a steer at all. Mr. B's face crimsoned when the easterner asserted that he'd brought home a bull instead.

CATS OFFERED: DOG WANTED

Dear Pot Shots:

I've never done this before, but they tell me there's no time like the present to start.

Due to no uncertain circumstances I have acquired a mother cat and three kittens. I would like very much for the same to have a nice home. Keeping them myself is just about impossible because of the competition expected in November. They arrived the 16th and are all males, and the mother knows where the door is.

As I say I've never tried this before, so I don't know what results to expect. Try anyhow.

One of our feminine constituents says she wants a small dog, preferably quite a young puppy, for her little boy, age one year. Anybody having same for the tiny gent may telephone 270.

And a male constituent at Hollister, J. W. Fullmer, told us he'd like a cocker spaniel for his five boys.

FAMOUS LAST LINE

". . . Oh goody, teacher's gone to institute! . . ."

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW

BOB HOPE

There was a fine Hollywood turnout when Sidney Skolsky, the film producer, premiered his fine new picture, "The Jolson Story," at Schwab's drug store. What a spectacle as searchlights spotted the sky and marshmallow sundaes spotted the audience. It was one of the most unusual pictures ever shown in Hollywood. The part of Al Jolson wasn't played by Don Ameche.

Bob Hope

I don't want to brag, but the grocery stores of America are now bidding furiously for my new picture, "My Favorite Brunette." It seems they want all the canned corn they can get.

I never had attended a movie at a drug store before and I wasted 20 dimes on that parking meter before I found out it was a scale. It was a worthwhile experience, though. They showed the picture on the back of Sidney Greenstreet's Palm Beach suit and Skolsky handed the critics free headache powders.

When I asked the guy sitting on the stool next to me what he thought of the picture he said: "What picture—I'm still waiting for my ham and eggs." And after the lights came on again they discovered all the chocolate bars were missing. I won't say I had much chocolate on my face but the only way I could leave safely was to sing "Mammy."

After reading the many reviews I'm happy to report that the critics unanimously agreed it was a smash hit. I wouldn't know, of course—I couldn't see very well in that telephone booth.

Idaho's Cities Proceed With Building Plan

By United Press

Despite the shortage of materials, the high costs and other problems detrimental to the postwar building boom, Idaho cities are going ahead with plans for improving their localities fitting them in with an eye toward the golden goose called tourist trade.

Lewiston taxpayers have approved the issuance of $90,000 worth of municipal—coupon—bonds—for—the erection of a modern four-lane bridge across the Clearwater river.

The bonds will be sold and proceeds used for purchase of rights-of-way to the approaches. The state and federal government will finance the structure and construction will start early next month, T. Matt Hally, state director of highways, says.

Work for Hospital

At Rexburg, voluntary subscriptions are being solicited to complete the financing of a proposed $175,000 Madison county Memorial hospital.

The town, at present, has two small buildings used for hospitals — one occupying one floor of a structure in the business district.

Madison county residents, at a special election, approved a levy to provide $100,000 for the institution but increased cost of materials hiked the previously estimated amount by $75,000. That's where the voluntary donations are needed now and the drive is underway.

Two Projects Here

Twin Falls is working on two projects—a new airport and a million-dollar bond issue for a county hospital.

The long proposed road from Yellowstone park to Sun Valley is coming to life again with representatives of six communities organized as the "Yellowstone-Sun Valley Highway association," to start action.

Final organizational meeting of the committee will be held in Hailey Sept. 30. Two representatives will attend from West Yellowstone, Island Park, Kilgore, Dubois, Howe, Arco, Mackay, Carey, Shoshone, Jerome, Twin Falls, Fairfield, Bellevue, Gannett, Picabo, Ketchum, Hill City, Mountain Home, Boise and Sun Valley.

Could Shorten Drive

The state highway No. 22 could eliminate 100 miles from the present route between Yellowstone and Boise. And at various intersections it would bring tourists from the Pacific coast and Montana.

In addition, the federal works agency has reported Idaho has submitted plans to build almost $5,000,000 worth of public works with their own funds during the next four years.

The total will be increased by federal expenditures for highways, reclamation, rivers, harbor improvements, flood control projects, veterans' hospitals, federal buildings and access roads.

Woman Bags Big Ram in Special Hunt

A Twin Falls woman, Mrs. Warren Skinner, is believed to have bagged the first big horn ram in the special sheep hunt in the central Idaho primitive area last week. She is shown here with the 300-pound big horn she shot on the middle fork of the Salmon river. The animal was bagged last Tuesday but she was unable to pack it out of the wilderness until over the week-end. (Staff engraving)

Estate of $16,425 Left by Resident

An estate valued at $16,425 was left by C. W. Roubinek, probate court records showed Wednesday.

The will dated Aug. 31, 1946, requested that $2,000 go to a daughter, Mary Beth Roubinek, residing in California, and the balance to his mother, Josephine Roubinek, Twin Falls.

The request was made that Lawrence J. Roubinek, Buhl, a brother, serve as executor with the will annexed.

Probate Judge S. T. Hamilton set the hearing for 10 a. m. Tuesday, Oct. 8.

Driver Loses Arm in Crash; Charges Filed

Two reckless driving charges were filed in probate court Thursday against operators of vehicles involved in collisions Wednesday night. In one of these accidents, which occurred near Hansen, Merle Kemp, 33, Hansen, sustained the loss of his left arm. In the other crash, which was near Murtaugh, no one was injured but considerable property damage resulted.

William F. Thorson, 26, Pocatello, has been cited to appear on a reckless driving charge by County Traffic Officer D. C. Parrott as aftermath of the accident in which Kemp was injured. Thorson was the driver of a loaded gravel truck which sideswiped a pick-up driven by Kemp at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday four miles south of Hansen. Investigation showed that the gravel truck was on the left side of the highway when the accident occurred, officers reported.

The gravel truck continued 150 feet down the oiled county road, entered a borrow pit, overturned and came to rest righting itself, said the investigators, Deputy Sheriffs Charles Parrott and Jim Benham.

Thorson, the gravel truck driver, was unhurt after the upset.

Shaken up and bruised were the passengers in Kemp's pickup, his wife and two children.

Kemp was rushed to Twin Falls county general hospital by A. N. Galeazzi, Pocatello, a construction company employe, from a nearby camp.

The pickup truck was spun around at the intersection but did not leave the road, said the deputies. It was not an intersection collision, however, as the gravel truck was northbound and the pickup southbound before they collided in the sideswipe.

In the second mishap Wednesday night, two sedans were badly wrecked on U. S. highway 30 one-half mile east of Murtaugh at 7 p. m.

Parrott said the mishap occurred when Charles Randell, 63, Murtaugh, turned into his driveway and was struck broadside by a sedan following.

Driver of the other car was Ernest Albright, 36, Dutton, Mont. No one was hurt in this wreck, said Parrott.

A complaint, signed by Albright, has been filed in probate court against Randell, charging reckless driving.

Bruin Coach Sees "Fair" Chance to Win

With only one man, John Rogers, left guard, out of his regular Bruin lineup, Coach Hank Powers said Wednesday that "we've got a fair chance to win" the Idaho Falls game there this Friday.

Considering that the coach was even more dubious about his eleven's chances against White Pine last week before the Bruins sent the Nevada team home on the short end of a 32 to 0 score, it seems like that comment might be decoded as "Idaho Falls, beware."

In pre-season Big Six predictions, both the Tigers and the Bruins were rated "dark horses." Last season, the Tigers nosed out Coach Powers' eleven 13 to 12.

The league-leading Burley Bulldogs tangle with the underdog Buhl Indians this week in a night game at Burley. Although it may be time the worm turned for the Buhl eleven, since they haven't won a game this season, Coach Don Requa said that he's afraid Buhl is "pretty weak."

E. M. Parke, mentor of the Gooding Senators, will match them against the Filer Wildcats there in another Big Seven game. Both teams have beaten Buhl and Gooding has lost to Burley while Filer dropped one to Rupert, the co-leader of the league.

This game should decide which team snags third ranking in the loop. Parke said that at least three of his regulars will be out for the game but "our chances are pretty good."

The Jerome Tigers will battle the Oakley Hornets in the only other Big Seven game scheduled this week. Oakley has lost to Burley and Jerome to Rupert and since they have no marks on the credit side of the ledger, it looks like a hot wrestle to mark up a win.

Games cooking in the B 11-man conference pot will find the Glenns Ferry Pilots vieing with the Hagerman Pirates, last year's champions. The Pilots are still looking for their first conference win.

Six-man games include a Hazelton-Paul tussle and a tentatively scheduled game between Malta and Albion.

Minor League Keglers Open Second Round

Second round for Minor league keglers found some of them with the kinks worked out of their arms Wednesday night.

Best game was bowled by Curley Kleinkopf for the Checker cab gang when he tallied 226 on the first line of the evening.

Heyburn Defeats Acequia 21 to 0 For Fourth Win

HEYBURN, Sept. 26—The Heyburn Panthers turned back the Acequia Indians to the tune of 21 to 0 here yesterday to win their fourth straight contest in the class B six-man conference.

Moore flipped one to Holmes who romped 25 yards for the first touchdown of the game early in the second quarter.

With 12 seconds left to go in the first half, Demer, Indian left end, caught a pass and raced to the Heyburn 10-yard line. When he was tackled he fumbled the ball, Holmes gathered it up and raced over 70 yards for the second tally, with the horn ending the period sounding in his ears before he reached pay territory.

After a midfield tug-o-war when neither team could score during the third period, the Indians waited until halfway through the last period to register their final touchdown when Moore tossed a 25-yard pass to Handy.

Fairfield Beats King Hill 44-18 For Third Victory

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 26—Fairfield's unbeaten Mushers swept to their third straight victory here Wednesday after a slow start, conquering King Hill 44-18, in a class B six-man tilt.

All King Hill's scoring came on passes from Woods, fullback, to right end Coulter. Most spectacular touchdown for the Mushers was Peck's brilliant 65-yard run on a double reverse.

Cards, 'Bums' Both Lose In Tight Race

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26 (AP)—Bucky Walters, sore-armed Cincinnati veteran who hadn't won a game since he beat St. Louis Aug. 17, shut out the league-leading Cardinals last night, 6-0 on seven hits, leaving the Red Birds one full game ahead of Brooklyn.

Presented with a golden opportunity to drape the Dodgers over the ropes after their afternoon loss to the Phillies, the Cardinals blew their chance before the mystifying slants of the 36-year-old right hander.

Walters gave Manager Bill McKechnie, "retiring" as Cincy skipper after the game, a neatly-wrapped going away present that was a serious jolt to budding St. Louis world series plans.

PHILLIES WIN 11 TO 9

BROOKLYN, Sept. 26 (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers missed a golden opportunity to share the National league leadership with the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday by dropping a nerve-wracking 11-9 game to the Philadelphia Phillies.

Possessing a three-run lead after eight innings, the Brooks cracked under the strain and blew sky-high in the ninth when the Phils pushed over five runs to leave a crowd of 22,245 dumbstruck.

Pirates Take 33 to 0 Win From Shoshone

RUPERT, Sept. 26 — The Pirates here won their third straight game Wednesday without being scored on when they beat the Shoshone Redskins 33 to 0. Henry Conlin, at right half for Rupert, marked up three touchdowns in a game in which Shoshone fielded a team minus four regulars because of injuries.

Only passes were tried by the visitors in a last quarter attempt to erase that goose-egg in this non-conference tilt.

Murtaugh Piles 20 to 0 Win Against Hailey

MURTAUGH, Sept. 26 — Mixing power plays with passes, Murtaugh Red Devils swung into action in the second period here yesterday and went on to defeat Hailey, 20-0 in a class B 11-man game.

The Red Devils got going in the second quarter, smashing forward on a line attack which sent Tolman across for the initial score. They repeated the dose in the third quarter with Tolman again scoring and then collected the final touchdown in the fourth period on an end run by Barkes.

Murtaugh intercepted five Wolverine passes; Hailey intercepted two Red Devil aerial efforts.

The victory gave the local eleven an even break so far, after a loss to Kimberly and ties with Eden and Declo.

3,250 Hunters Start Annual Trek to Cassia Division Hunt

The annual exodus of hunters bound for the deer hunt area of Minidoka national forest south of Twin Falls commenced today, with 3,250 marksmen due to try for a deer during the period, Sept. 27-Oct. 6.

Heaviest crowds are expected on week-ends.

"There are plenty of fat bucks down there," said I. E. (Bill) Nitschke, who participated in the recent archery hunt in the forest.

Twin Falls hunters have been stocking up on ammunition, deer tags and other equipment for the outing.

Local sportsmen will start leaving town late today in order to be on hand for the opening of the Cassia division hunt Friday, starting shooting at daylight.

Many hunters should be back in town before noon tomorrow with deer. The 3,250 hunters were named as a result of a drawing which attracted over 7,000 applicants.

"More fat bucks were seen during the archery hunt than in former years," explained Nitschke. "Nineteen deer were taken out, but there will be plenty left for the hunt coming up."

The archery hunt covered a small section in the middle part of the forest, while the hunt starting Friday will be in a much larger area.

The bucks appeared to be well fed, and plenty of feed was in evidence, said archery hunters.

Checking stations on the Twin Falls county side of the area will be on the Shoshone, Indian Springs and Rock Creek roads.

Nimrods Cautioned to Avoid Casualties in Hunt

Although it's now all quiet on the southern front, law enforcement and game conservation officials are apprehensive of what will happen when "hostilities" open Friday morning in the deer hunt area of Minidoka national forest.

For this reason, they issued words of caution Wednesday to the 3,200 permittees who will participate in the hunt before it closes on Oct. 6.

Sheriff W. W. Lowery pointed out that responsibility for avoiding accidents during the hunt rests with each hunter who participates, both in safeguarding himself or herself and others.

"Although this hunt covers a large area, it is not so large but that there is considerable danger from so many high-powered rifles," the official said. "Participants will include many amateur hunters who have never hunted deer before. They are advised to observe the slogan, 'Don't Shoot 'Til You're Sure!' and, it goes without saying, that more seasoned hunters will adhere to this principle.

"Despite repeated warnings, there are hunters who may be tempted to shoot at movements in the brush or at objects that have not been definitely identified as deer. Also all hunters should make sure where bullets are going to go while reaching or after passing a deer at which they are shooting," the sheriff said.

He also called attention to the fact that there are many cattle and a herd of elk in that section which could easily be mistaken for deer.

Turning from safety with firearms to the equally dangerous weapons of automobiles, Sheriff Lowery pointed out that roads will be dusty, narrow and winding and will be patrolled at all times.

"We do not want to disrupt anyone's trip," he added, "but we want to make sure everyone gets back alive and officers are instructed to make arrests in cases of reckless driving or other violations."

As forest fires are still a menace, the county official emphasized the importance of observing all precautions as to putting out camp fires and avoiding throwing down lighted matches or cigarettes.

Young people who are participating in the hunt for the first time should be impressed with the necessity for observing all rules of safety and should also be advised by their parents of the danger of becoming lost in the rugged country, Sheriff Lowery said.

Conservation Officer Grover Davis instructed all hunters to be sure to check in and out at one of the checking stations. On the Twin Falls county side, these are located on the Shoshone, Indian Springs and Rock Creek roads.

As a word to the wise on firearms, County Attorney E. M. Sweeley stressed these two points:

No. 1—every gun is loaded.

No. 2—no gun is ever safe.

If all hunters will keep these two facts in mind in handling their rifles there will be much less chance of accidents, the official said.

Bliss Wins First Home Game From Richfield 13 to 7

BLISS, Sept. 26 — In the first football game ever played on a Bliss field here Wednesday, the locals made it a perfect day by winning 13 to 7 over Richfield in a six-man contest.

The Allen brothers, spotted at halfback and right end for Bliss, played an outstanding game. Johnson at halfback for the Richfield Tigers pushed across a last quarter touchdown for the visitors to keep them from being whitewashed.

Richfield substitutes: Pate, Robinson, Farnsworth, Miller, Baden, Johnson. Bliss substitutes: R. Thompson, Parson, Reed, Henderson, Robbins, Floyd. Officials: Hamilton; umpire, Flane; headlinesman, Condit.

Kimberly Downs Eden 13 to 0

EDEN, Sept. 26—The Kimberly Bulldogs got back in the win column here Wednesday by licking the local eleven 13 to 0. Coach Wilson T. Harper's gang took the ball straight do'n the field from the opening kickoff to score a touchdown in the opening minutes of the game.

After a second period see-saw, the visitors took a punt on the Kimberly 30-yard line and pushed to the second touchdown in the third quarter.

Gil Quesnell, 160-pound Bulldog quarterback, played a crashing ballgame, plunging for both touchdowns. When the final gun went off, Kimberly was only three yards from pay-dirt again.

35 Vandals Make Stanford Trip

MOSCOW, Sept. 25 (AP)—Coach James A. (Babe) Brown and 35 University of Idaho football players entrained late today for Palo Alto, Calif., and Saturday's engagement with Stanford university.

"Stanford may not be as strong as Stanford teams used to be," Brown told his team, "but she's still plenty strong."

About one-ninth of the Arabs in Palestine are Christian — the remainder are Moslem.

Runner Trips, But Jayvees Beat Wendell 19 to 7

WENDELL, Sept. 26 — The Twin Falls Jayvees defeated Wendell 19 to 7 here Wednesday in a joust spiced by a fluke touchdown and a runner who had a cinch score but tripped just short of the goal line.

That was Crandall, substitute Twin Falls end, who Coach Hank Powers said "had got away from everybody and was headed for a goal when he fell flat on his face only a few yards away."

The strange touchdown was scored by Gandiaga in the last period when Long, Twin Falls quarterback, dropped the ball as he was trying to hand it to the right halfback who was supposed to charge over the right side of the line.

Gandiaga scooped up the pigskin and bulled through the left side of the line—which turned out to be the right side—for a 55 yard run to a touchdown.

Grain

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 (AP)—A new 21-year high for wheat futures was established in the grain pits today, but the market had difficulty in maintaining extreme advances. The January wheat delivery rose above $2.04.

Corn advanced to the best levels since Aug. 1 on buying stimulated by possibility ceilings will be removed, or at least temporarily suspended, on cattle and hogs. Oats showed independent weakness.

Weakness in oats spread to other pits toward the close and final prices were lower. Wheat closed down ⅛ to 1½, January $2.01, corn was off ⅛ to ⅝, January $1.41½-¾, and oats dropped ⅛ to 1¼, November 80¼ to ⅜.

Researchers Lack Hinders Cancer Fight

(Fourth in a series)
By PAUL F. ELLIS

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (U.P.) — The lack of trained specialists is one of the serious bottlenecks in the fight against cancer.

Research is going forward, but more cancer centers such as the Memorial hospital and cancer center here, are needed. In this center, cancer is detected, treated, studied in the laboratory, and young doctors trained to fight the disease.

More Centers Needed

Experts who have set the pattern here believe that if similar centers could be set up in other parts of the country and throughout the world, one of the biggest obstacles in the way of solving the mystery of cancer might be overcome.

This cancer center itself is pushed for room and an extensive program of expansion, including new buildings, is now underway—but improvement of this center alone will not solve the problem.

The need, cancer scientists agree, is for more and more integrated cancer centers.

Demand Terrific

The demand for treatment or examination at memorial is terrific. The supposedly-well person going there for prevention examination must wait several months for his turn. He knows, however, that results are obtained in this hospital if the cancer is caught in time. No such long delays occur in those cases of known or suspected cases.

The same results could be obtained in all parts of the country if similar facilities were available, the medical men say.

They believe that when more such centers are operating and there is a better distribution of trained specialists that cancer will be on the run; at least, its days may be numbered.

Forum Head Hits at Demo

Pete Leguineche's statement backing the policy of former Secretary of Interior Henry Wallace, and President Harry S. Truman's dismissal of Wallace from the cabinet, means that Leguineche is unfit and unworthy to hold a position of trust and responsibility in the government of the United States today," A. Larron Colston charged at the Twin Falls open forum Wednesday night.

Leguineche is a candidate for second district congressman on the Democratic ticket.

"Remove Controls, Let the Horse Run," C. of C. Told

The United States is drifting away from the aspects of the federal system of government conceived by its founders by the absorption of more centrally-located power of the federal government, Jacob D. Allen, national affairs counsellor of the United States Chamber of Commerce, asserted at a general membership meeting of the chamber here Wednesday evening.

"What America needs is the removal of restrictions and controls and let the horse run," he said, "If we had 99 per cent less government and let the simple rules of the game suffice, the country would be much better off."

He pointed out that in the past it was necessary to enact legislation to curb the powers of big business and trusts, suggesting similar legislation today to curb the powers of labor.

The two principal jobs of the people today are to maintain our free American concept of government regardless of which political party is in power and to maintain a free competitive system of business.

Allen pointed out that the keynote of the declaration of independence and the constitution was "let freedom ring."

He rapped at the extension of OPA and charged that "too much of our durable goods, especially lumber, is being used by the state department for export."

The national chamber official declared that during wartime a "great colossus" of federal employes was built up and that "today there are about 10 federal employes to every legitimate government job." He pointed out that there are so many federal employes "they are falling over themselves and are kept busy creating jobs for themselves."

Allen pointed out that the entire blame for the overstaffed federal government should not fall on Franklin D. Roosevelt or President Truman. He declared that the house of representatives is partially to blame because it has the power to control appropriations.

Earl Murphy, executive secretary of the Idaho Chamber of Commerce, and Allen stressed the importance of letting congressmen in Washington know the sentiment of the voters in their constituency.

"The most powerful influence in Washington is the voice from home," Murphy said. He urged that the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce establish a national affairs committee to urge greater participation in the representation of business men's views in Washington by writing to congressmen.

William Hammond, San Francisco, western area director of the national organization, was unable to attend the session.

Navy to Recruit Men for Reserve

Navy recruiting emphasis in Idaho has been shifted to obtaining men for the V-5 inactive reserve program, Lieut. Max M. McCoy, Boise, officer in charge of naval recruiting in Idaho, said Wednesday while in Twin Falls on inspection tour.

Idaho's quota for accepting men in the regular navy has been cut to two men a week and all recruiters will stress enlisting men for the reserves, Lieutenant McCoy said.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help th 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Scout Leader To Speak at Session Here

O. D. Sharpe, Portland, Ore., regional executive of the Boy Scouts of America, will address the Magic Valley Scout council meetings to be held Oct. 10, 11, and 12, at Burley, Twin Falls, and Shoshone, on respective dates, Frank L. Cook, president of the executive board of the Snake River Scout council, announced at a council meeting at the Park hotel last night.

The three-section Magic Valley council will repeat the program at each town. Scout leaders in Cassia and Minidoka counties will attend the Burley meet, Jerome and Twin Falls counties will gather at Twin Falls, and the Shoshone meet will take in Blaine, Camas, Gooding, and Lincoln counties.

Present at the monthly board meeting were 22 leaders from Burley, Oakley, Buhl, Gooding, Shoshone, Murtaugh, Twin Falls and Jerome, who considered the main subject for discussion, Scout summer camping.

J. A. Keith, Shoshone, council camping chairman, presented an attendance report that 705 Scouts from 54 troops attended some camp for a week or more the past season, representing a gain of 13 per cent in troops and 10 per cent in Scouts over a year ago. An additional 438 Scouts from 30 troops made short-term trips of less than a week, Keith said.

The council decided to continue its policy of emphasizing Scout leadership in camping, as a result of the good experience reported by troops whose ample leadership led to well organized camping.

Lloyd Smith, Oakley leader, gave an account and projected movies of the trip his troop took to Yellowstone in July.

Dr. R. C. Matson, Jerome, council chairman of organization and extension, reported that the extent to date of Magic Valley Scouting totals 98 Scout units, 1,911 Scouts, and 535 Scout leaders. Roy Painter, council treasurer, reported total yearly expenditures to date at $12,940. He added that a recent campaign in Burley netted more than $3,000.

Herbert West, Twin Falls scout executive, briefly outlined plans for participation in a nationwide Scout roundup, chiefly a recruiting campaign, in the next three months.

Before adjourning the board resolved "to encourage and stimulate all Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Senior Scouts to purchase and regularly wear Boy Scout uniforms."

Bankers Call for "Firm, Positive" Foreign Policies

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 (AP) — The American Bankers association today called for a "firm and positive" American foreign policy and for a reduction in government spending to pay for essential services only.

These policies were set forth in resolutions adopted at the closing session of the ABA convention. Another resolution reiterated the organization's stand in favor of "a basic plan of taxation."

The resolution on foreign policy asserted that "at no time in the life of the nation has a sound foreign policy been more necessary than it is today."

The ABA also urged the government to reduce spending "to the smallest figure commensurate with the maintenance of those essential services that government must provide."

MAGIC with SPERRY PANCAKE & WAFFLE FLOUR

CAN YOU KNOCK THE TOOTHPICK OFF WITHOUT TOUCHING THE GLASS OR TABLE?

We'll tell you right now that sound waves won't knock the toothpick off—not even if you shout "Make Mine Sperry's"! The place to do that is at your grocer's, anyhow—when you want the kind of magic that comes in a package of Sperry Pancake and Waffle Flour and makes sour cream buttermilk pancakes in 5 minutes from package to plate. How to knock the toothpick off? See #1 below.

CAN YOU SPIN THE PENCIL WITHOUT TOUCHING OR BLOWING?

Believe it or not, this stunt is simplicity itself to perform. Just like making old-fashioned hotcakes the Sperry new-fashioned way. No fuss or bother—all you do is add liquid to Sperry Pancake and Waffle Flour for rich, sour cream buttermilk pancakes in 5 minutes from package to plate. Pencil spinning magic explained in #2 below.

5 Tricks to make you a Mealtime Magician

5 tricks of cooking sleight-of-hand—all in one package of Sperry Pancake and Waffle Flour. Waffles, pancakes, muffins, dumplings and coffee cake made the quick, new-fashioned way. Easy recipes on every Sperry package.

SPERRY'S MAGIC ANSWER BOX

1. Balance a quarter on its rim, and a toothpick on the rim of the quarter. Cover both with an inverted tumbler. Take a comb and run it through your hair. Bring comb up close to glass and move it up and down. Electricity in comb will unbalance toothpick so that it topples off the quarter.*

2. Balance pencil on thimble or other rounded object. Take hard rubber comb and run it through your hair, then hold near point of pencil. Start moving comb in circle and pencil will move after it.*

*Save both these tricks for a cool, dry day—they won't work in hot, humid weather.
